A festive message from our MD Mark Taylor

Welcome to the November and December edition of our Innovative Food Guide. Hopefully as you read it, you'll find some inspiration for your menu, we certainly enjoyed putting it together for you.

Christmas is always an exciting time in foodservice and, after the challenges of the past few years, I'm sure many of us are hoping for something that feels a bit more 'normal'.

At kff, we're working hard to provide you with the support that makes the Christmas period a successful one. Over the past year, we've continued to develop our product range, including the launch of a wonderful range of fresh fish from M&J Fresh Seafood. Added to our ever-expanding chilled range, we are increasingly able to offer everything you need on a single delivery.

Of course, as the South East's leading regional wholesaler, we remain committed to local provenance and are growing the amount of locally-sourced produce we sell. We're very keen to support local success stories and we've renewed our sponsorship of the Kent and Medway Food and Drink Awards, showcasing those exceptional foodservice businesses across the region.

We know how important getting the right mix of products is to your business and throughout this publication, you will see some fantastic examples of products that will help you to create stand out menus, many of them from local businesses like yours.

This is my first Christmas as Managing Director of kff and, over the course of the year, one of things that has most impressed me is the dedication of the kff team, and how they work tirelessly to provide our customers with the level of service they deserve. My background is in operations, and I'm working with the team to ensure we keep on improving the service we provide everyday.

We are fortunate to have the support of our parent company, Sysco, which continues to help us invest and prepare for the future. Hopefully you will have seen our new fleet of vehicles with our new branding delivering across the region, part of the investment that Sysco has made.

As ever, the entire team is very grateful that you continue to put your faith in kff as your wholesale partner. Our promise to you is that we will do everything in our power to support and grow our partnership, offering the right range of products and the highest level of service for your business.

I hope that you have a good and profitable Christmas and, on behalf of everyone at kff, wish you the happiest of holidays.

With best wishes
Mark
